DEDICATION:

Miss Lura Apt

After many months of being under Miss Apt's guidance, we have learned to know her well. She is kind, sympathetic and a great person. For us she has been a person who will listen, but she is also a person who can ask many questions.

During our years in Medical-Surgical Nursing, she has instructed us on the floor, in the classroom and has been our leader with the yearbook.

Sometimes it is difficult to find her, but never try to hide from her. It just doesn't work.

In this small space, Miss Apt, we would like to thank you for all the guidance and assistance you have given us. It was really needed and appreciated.

Adele and Linda decorating the Christmas tree.

"Just think, nine months, three weeks, five days, nineteen hours and fifty-seven minutes to go!"

Verle and Ruth spend their spare time in the library?

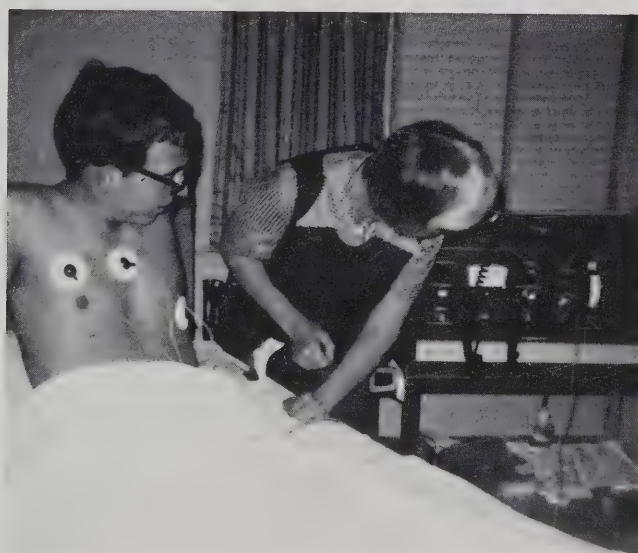

"Hey, this Dummy is alive!"

Malnourished student nurses must supplement their cafeteria diet - thanks to BIC!

Verle's Pastries

FLASH!! Student nurse finds a moment to smile.

I forgot to take the cellophane off that suppository.

Three 'out' students in an elevator ...

Three 'out' students in an elevator with a tongue out.

But, can I help it if they're all married?

Gee, it's fun being a nurse isn't it?

"Come on girls, ICU isn't that traumatic of an experience!"

"We're off to see the Wizard ..."

But, all I want is a bed pan!

Come on baby, light my fire!

High on sunshine!

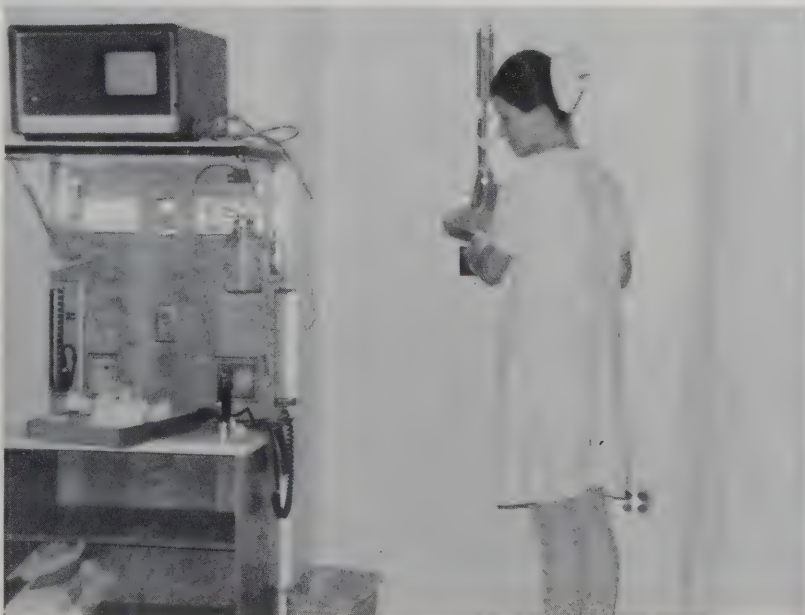

"Yes, it's a new experience in the Emergency Room!"

"One more year!"

Nursing Is: RESPONSIBILITY

CLASS OFFICERS - CLASS OF '73: B. J. Harrison, Robin Preuit, Kathy S Selph, Mary Ann Theimer, Kathy Donahue, Carla Jones, and Kathy Harrison.

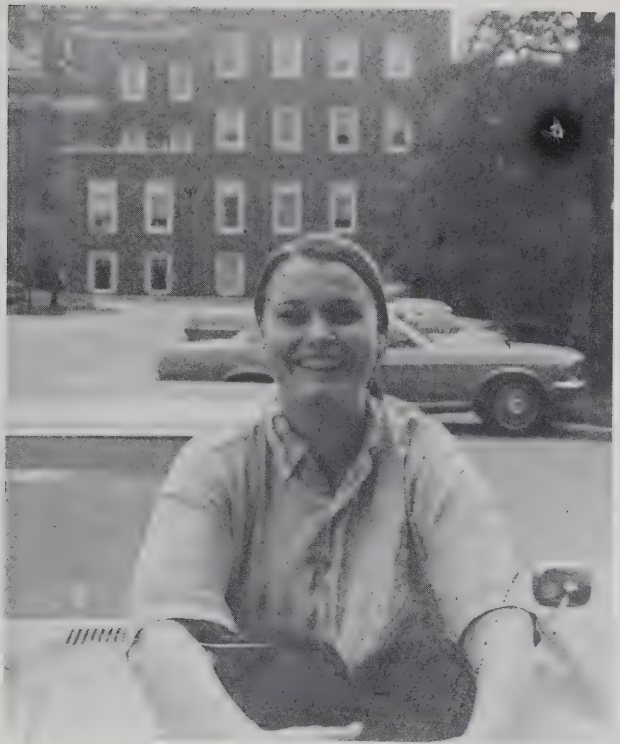

Does this look like a person who helped to deliver a baby?

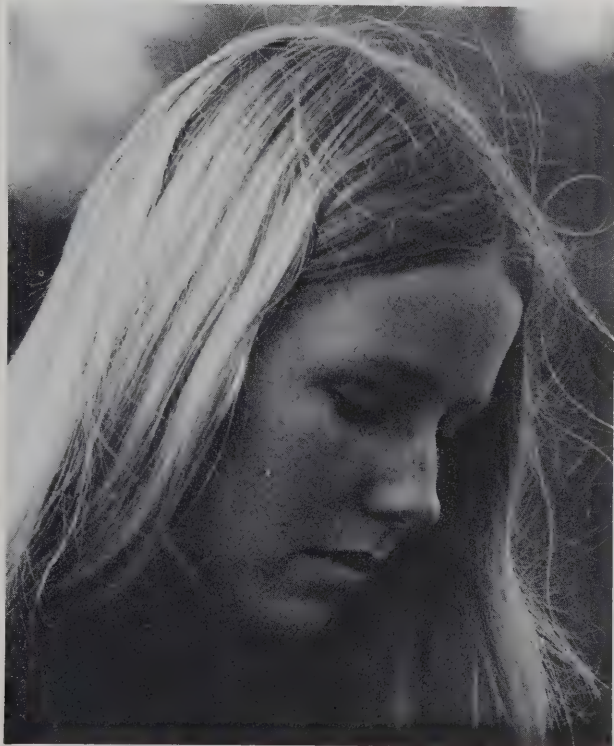

Will this nurse use her spare time to milk cows?

Doesn't Donna look like an E.R. nurse?

Pam no longer has to drive 300 miles home for weekends.

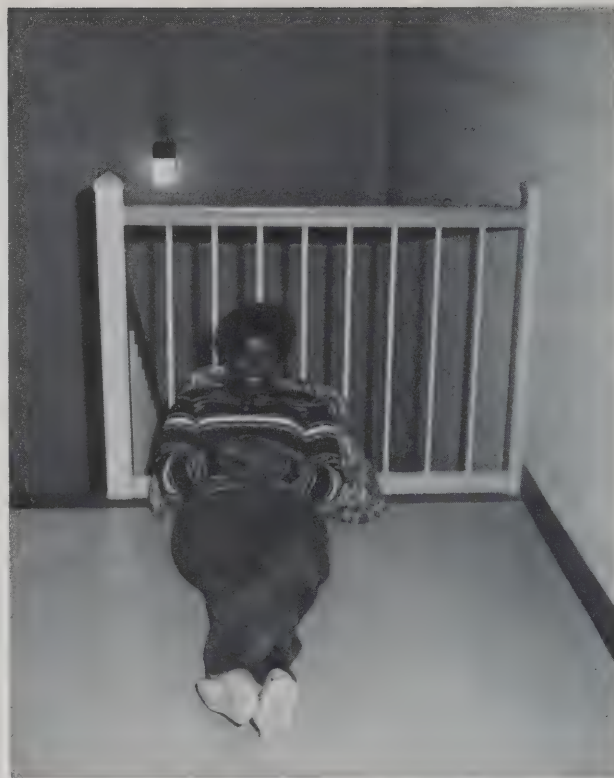

Robin thinks about her future in pediatric nursing.

Will a nurse's salary be enough to pay for Linda's telephone bills?

Just think, no more days to look in this silly mailbox.

Will Lyrch be this relaxed the day of state boards?

Will Becky be smiling like this after a day of working with children?

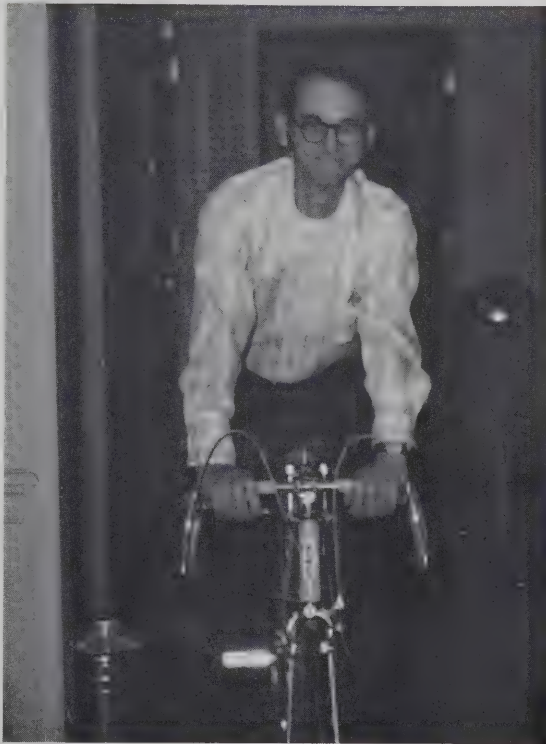

Janet takes the easy way out - private duty!

Joanne - there will be no weekends like this, once you start working in the O.R.

Brenda - By the time you graduate you might decide on a job.

Richard - Are you going to use your syringes as weapons in the jail?

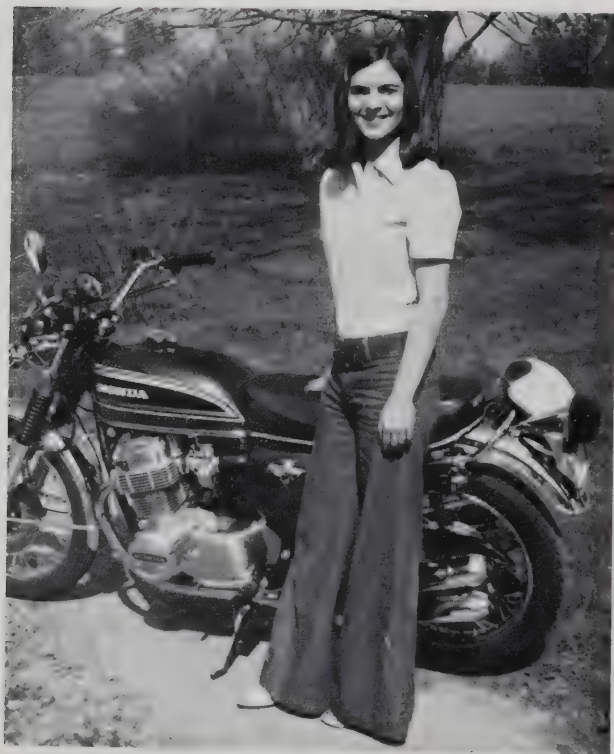

Liz- Life will never be such as leisure again!

B. J., will these 3-11 weekends mess up your love life?

Ethel, you better be nice to those new mothers!

Linda, how do you expect to wear a uniform on this?

Susan, before long that stuffed animal will be replaced by Larry!

Dana, you have no more yearbooks to worry about.

Kathy - Fairfax is a long way from home.

Will Kathy continue to climb the stairs to success.

Kathy's gone into the "internship" program in hopes of finding an intern.

Carla - You look like the perfect mother substitute for the babies in the nursery.

Wonza - After graduation you should have more time for your husband.

Will Karin bring flowers each day for her patients to smell in the Respiratory ICU?

Suzanne - How are cardiac monitors and marriage going to mix? You'll hear hearts 24 hours a day.

Annie, are you really going to retire?

Will DiDi get a tan while working in Virginia Beach?

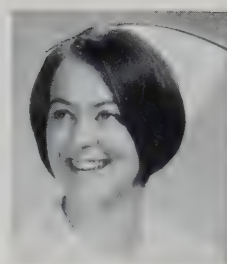

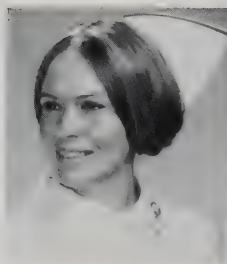

Rose contemplates on where she will work.

Charlotte, I bet the trees in Hawaii are prettier than this one!
